

This sketch provides my point of view about “if nuclear explosion would be COVID-19”. Changes in human appearance, nature and distress.

This is capture of “reverse” situation. The death after nuclear explosion could replace life in the general common sense. Be aware to lose pure nature.

It illustrate what we can do to erase disasters and death from nuclear weapons – we should have strong disarmament flows and denuclearization on the planet